Recessional

Please remain seated until all graduates have left the main seating area.

Congratulations Graduates!

Dear Graduates,

Today is about more than finishing a degree, certificate, or diploma.

You learned new skills. You solved problems. You adapted to change and new technologies. You kept moving forward, even when it was not easy.

That is leadership. Not a title, but the choice to keep showing up for yourself, for your family, and for your community.

Now go forward and become an expert in your field. Keep learning. Continue to embrace change with a growth mindset. Your skills matter, but your attitude will shape every opportunity ahead of you.

Please stay connected to Clatsop. When you are ready, host an intern, hire a student, or support the College Foundation. This community helped support your path, and your success will help open the path for others.

Sincerely,

Jarrold Hogue

President

Clatsop Community College

Jarrold Hogue
CCC President

Jarrold Hogue became President of Clatsop Community College in 2024, bringing over 20 years of leadership experience in higher education, workforce development, K-12 virtual education. He previously served in senior roles at Mt. Hood Community College, including executive dean and acting chief academic officer overseeing career and technical education, workforce development, and high school partnerships. Jarrold holds a Master of Science from Northern State University and a bachelor's degree from Western Oregon University. He and his wife, Mary, have two daughters. In his free time, he enjoys the outdoors, sports, and exploring local history.

Guest Speaker

Norma Hernandez
Deputy Director, Consejo Hispano

Born and raised in San Juan, Puerto Rico, I spent 20 years living in the Northeast— in New York City and Boston—before relocating to Astoria, Oregon, in February 2003. While working as an office manager at an oyster company in Bay Center, Washington, I became deeply aware of the needs and challenges facing the Latinx community in our region. This experience ignited a lasting passion for social justice and community advocacy, ultimately leading me to serve as the first Executive Director of Consejo Hispano.

I continued this work in my role as a WIC Coordinator with Clatsop County Public Health, further deepening my commitment to supporting underserved families and advancing health equity.

After 12 years, I found my way back to Consejo Hispano as Deputy Director—where my passion and purpose truly feel at home.

In recognition of my contributions, I have been honored with the George Award from the Astoria-Warrenton Chamber of Commerce and the President’s Award from the Astoria Downtown Historic District Association in 2015. In October 2021, I was proud to receive the Hometown Hero Award from the Portland Trail Blazers during their Latino Heritage Celebration.

Most recently, in 2025, I was honored with the Individual Community Impact Award from Clatsop Economic Development Resources.

I currently serve as Chair of the Liberty Theatre Board and the Astoria Parks and Recreation Advisory Board, Secretary of the Astoria Co+op Board, and as a member of the North Coast Leadership Council for the Oregon Community Foundation. I am also an active volunteer and supporter of the Astoria Community Foundation, and KMUN, where I host the radio show Ritmo Latino on the second Thursday of each month.

At the heart of everything I do is a deep commitment to uplifting our communities, creating opportunities, and ensuring that everyone—regardless of background—has the chance to thrive.

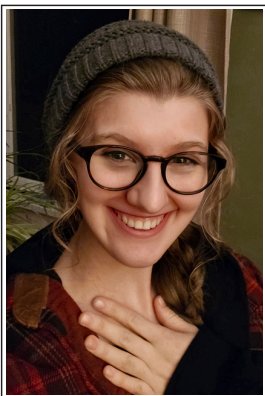

Faculty Marshal

Dr. Julie Brown
CCC Faculty

Dr. Julie Nadine Brown has been a full-time instructor at CCC since 1995. Over the years she has taught a wide variety of courses including literature, writing, and humanities. She has also served as department chair of Arts and Letters, faculty advisor to Rain Magazine, co-founder of the Fisher Poets Gathering, and co-founder of the RiverSea Conference. In recent years she has continued her education at Oxford University, Cambridge University, and La Sorbonne. As a Fulbright Scholar she taught Maritime Culture at the University of the Highlands in Scotland. Her published books include Writers on the Spectrum, Ethnicity and the American Short Story, and American Women Short Story Writers, as well as over a dozen children's books. She is proud of her legacy of supporting literacy and learning in her students and in this community.

Student Marshal

Acadia Dwyer
*All-Oregon Academic
Team Scholar*

Acadia has balanced rigorous coursework, work responsibilities, and personal wellness by developing strong organizational skills and prioritizing self-care. Inspired by her own experience navigating an autoimmune disorder and life-saving treatments, she is pursuing a path toward earning a PharmD and degrees in pharmaceutical sciences. She is building a strong academic foundation with advanced math and science coursework while gaining hands-on experience as a pharmacy technician. Clatsop Community College has supported her journey through rigorous instruction and dedicated faculty mentorship, preparing her for success in a competitive healthcare field.

Student Marshal & Speaker

Fiona Giselle Hackett

*All-Oregon Academic
Team Scholar*

Fiona Giselle Hackett graduates from Clatsop Community College with an Associate of Arts Transfer Degree in English as a nontraditional, low income, first-generation, full-time student. Born and raised in Clatsop County, she graduated from Seaside High School 11 years ago to the day of this ceremony.

In all senses of the word, Fiona feels alien to this world. She chose to return to her familiar roots in pursuit of secondary education, starting as an online-only student working in the Dora Badollet Library for Federal Work Study.

Integration into campus life happened serendipitously. First, she was asked to read at the Library's Stormy Stories event. Then she found herself a part of the 2025-2030 Strategic Planning Committee, passionate about contributing to Strategic Priority #1: Improve Student Access. This leadership experience revealed the importance of amplifying student stories.

Alongside her dear friend Sophia Vandagriff as Vice President, Fiona was elected Associated Student Government President. Their campaign was primarily centered on transparency, collaboration, and creativity. Throughout the year, ASG Representatives Ezekiel Duchene, Sophie Rose Alsbury, Jena Russell, and Sofia Bautista curated events and championed initiatives to increase student belonging. This, third in line to taking Kama's creative writing classes and learning how to paint, were Fiona's favorite parts of her community college journey.

Fiona thanks her mother and brother for their consistent love and encouragement. Fiona acknowledges those instrumental in her growth: Andrew Morgan, Dr. Julie Brown, Deac Guidi, Kama O'Connor, Fernando Rojas, and of course the library folks who championed her belonging from the start: Kristi Polus, Dan McClure, Rhonda Alderman, and Abby Mortimer.

Fiona believes there is no greater importance than finding one's purpose, supporting others' in theirs, and contributing to your community. She wishes someone had told her this back then, so she hopes these words reach someone now: please, dare to believe in a world big enough to hold all of your dreams.

Student Speaker

Gabrielle Montano
GED Student

I was raised by a single mother. I went to both Seaside and Warrenton high schools where I fell behind on credits. After dropping out my junior year, I began working in retail for five years before having my son, who is now 5. This has led me to the decision to pursue my education. I want my son to not only grow up financially secure, but also to know that it's never too late to start over. In the fall, I'm starting my associate degree in business.

Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society

Phi Theta Kappa is an international honor society that serves to recognize and encourage the academic achievement of two-year college students. Phi Theta Kappa provides opportunities for individual growth and development through honors, leadership and service programming. Founded by Missouri two-year college presidents in 1918, it is now the largest society in American higher education. Members qualify because of exemplary academic excellence and a desire to participate in the student-generated intellectual enrichment, leadership, service and fellowship in their local chapter. Members of Clatsop's Phi Theta Kappa chapter, Pi Phi, graduating are:

Rose Ceremony

The Rose Ceremony is a Clatsop Community College tradition. When a student chooses to pursue higher education goals, whether they are looking to continue at a university, expanding their certifications in their chosen field or are finishing their degree, we recognize that the students journey involves more than the student themselves. Many students are able to accomplish their educational goals with support, encouragement and inspiration from their instructors, college staff, family and friends. Graduating students are presented with a rose as they cross the stage to accept their diploma. They are encouraged to present this rose to the person who has been there for them on their academic journey as a thank you for all they have done while at CCC.
