BEGINNING BELLY DANCING (PER006002) (0 Credit)
Though the origin of belly dancing remains a subject of great debate, we know it to be one of the most ancient forms of dance. Endless gestures and postures involving the entire body combine to create one of the most fluid forms of feminine expression. At the beginner level, most moves and positions are surprisingly easy to learn and offer an exotic way to have fun and exercise. Physical benefits include improved muscle tone and joint movement; however, the spiritual enhancement is far more persuasive.

This course will be streamlined for every student based on her or his musical ambitions. “Bluegrass” and “Old Time Tunes” will be the focus of this course. Through the use of a personal journal, assignments, readings and group interaction, women will investigate the proverbial “Who Am I?” question and how women fit into their families, whether a daughter, mother, wife, or sister. Explore the various approaches to writing and find out what works best for women as individuals. Please call 503-338-2408 for location in GaltSpace/Rainer.

Individuals interested in Bluegrass Guitar and Mandolin will be streamlined for every student based on his or her musical ambitions. Focus will be flat picking and to gain a greater knowledge of equipment, regulations, elementary seamanship, charts and their uses, boat trailering, sailing, and engine troubleshooting. Presents the basic elements of equipment, regulations, elementary seamanship, charts and their uses, boat trailering, sailing, and engine troubleshooting. Students should gain a greater knowledge of music and acoustic, electric, or bass guitars. Class emphasizes techniques and music theory for amateur or professional guitarists and bass guitarists. Fee includes 10 half-hour lessons. Please call 503-325-8573 or on line at www.extension.oregonstate.edu/class/gardening/master-gardeners. Class held at the Astoria Fair Grounds.

Students must hold a Technician Amateur Radio License to take this class. This class will prepare students for the Amateur Radio (Ham Radio) “General License Exam,” and will review what the students had previously learned. They will learn more about Radio Theory, Basic Electronic Theory, RF Exposure Limits, Radio Ethics, Antennas, Expanded Frequency Bands, as well as other important and necessary subjects to know in order to pass the Ham Radio General Class Exam. The exam will be given on Saturday at 9:00am. The objective of this class is to expand the knowledge of the Ham Radio operator in order for them to upgrade to the General Class license. (Class is held Friday, April 15 from 9:30-4:00 pm, and Saturday April 16 & April 17 from 9:00am-4:00 pm.) You may begin the re-certification process up to 90 days before your license expiration date. This 6-hour course provides the minimum necessary training to re-certify a licensed security provider-unarmed. Curriculum is created and maintained by the Oregon State Department of Public Safety, Standard and Training (DPST). Students passing this course receive a license to work entry-level private security anywhere in the State of Oregon. Your license will normally expire after two years and re-certification classes are available. Please pay the instructor the course fees of $100 at the time of the class. There will also be a fee of $30 for an Oregon State licensing and background-check payable to DPST with your application for licensure. Certain past criminal convictions will disqualify students from receiving a license. Please call 503-458-6950 for further information. Continuing Education

ETHICAL BOUNDARIES (SOCC616) on ETHICAL BOUNDARIES-CEU (SOCC616CE) (0 Credit)

Working in mostly isolated rural communities has special ethical challenges for the clinician. Avoiding these forms of dual relationships is virtually impossible when there are only two grocery stores, one plumber and one school. Awareness of ethical pitfalls and strategies of avoiding them will help their clients perceive workplace relationships as inappropriate or unprofessional. Seminar begins at 8:00am with registration and a continental breakfast and then lunch on your own from 12:30-1:30pm. (The CEU section is for only students wishing Continuing Education Units (CEU). CEU section cost is $30.)
