BOARD GENERAL POWERS AND RULES

Clatsop Community College was established and operates under the authority granted by the Oregon State Legislature as contained in the Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS).

The Board of Directors is subject to the provisions of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, ORS, rules and regulations of the State governing board, its own policies, and the expressed will of the electorate.

The Board of Directors, in keeping with the requirements of Oregon law and the rules and regulations set by the State governing board, shall provide community college services for the community, establish and administer general policies for the operation of Clatsop Community College, and act as a general agent of the State in carrying out the will of the College in the matter of public education.

The Board of Directors will not take any position on local, state or national legislative matters, except as it may be of direct concern to Clatsop Community College.
