PER040503	SEPTIC SYSTEMS				$20.00
Participants will learn everything they wanted (and likely did not want) to know about the septic system that is working hard every day to dispose wastewater. Working silently underground, your septic system is like the engine in your car: you don't think about it until it malfunctions! And like your car's engine, your septic system needs to be maintained properly to make sure it functions properly for a very long time. Homeowners, renters, realtors and the curious are invited to come and learn about how a septic system works, where you can find it on your property, and how to properly feed and maintain the system to assure its longevity. 1 session

PER013535	NEW	PROMPTPALOOZA			$20.00
In this class, we will learn to work with an abundance of creative writing prompts. With a focus on wordplay, students will move through a series of fantastic catalysts at a semi-rapid pace—creating laughter and a light-hearted atmosphere. Let curiosities inspire you and poignant vignettes help you get your words on paper. Using all five senses, we'll go on a little scavenger hunt, plugging into your sense of lyric and rhythm. This class is great for both beginning and more practiced writers. 1 session

PER013534	NEW	READING FOR WRITERS: POETRY			$20.00
Writers read. A lot. In this half-day class, students will read (and watch performances of) a quantity of poems from emerging writers and masters alike—new voices and poets who you may not have read before. We'll talk about the quest for exact and unique expression, be a little awestruck by their mastery, and enjoy the power of a well-made poem. Poets and prose writers alike are encouraged. We'll talk about the craft of writing as a practice, but students do not have to be writers themselves. All you need is a fondness for words. 1 session

PER013533	NEW	THE EXTREMELY SHORT STORY			$20.00
Flash fiction is generally 1000 words or less. This small sub-genre of literature is growing in popularity and publication. Students will read some compelling examples of short prose, and we'll try writing a few pieces of flash fiction ourselves. Composing flash is a great way for writers working on longer projects, like a memoir or a collection of poems, to sharpen their creative writing skills overall. Writers of all experience (or no experience at all) are welcome. 1 session
