

Retention Rates for Fall 2015 and 2016 Cohort

This data represents completions as reported to the National Center for Education Statistics. The college annually reports this information as part of the Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System (IPEDS).

While the college may enroll more than 2000 students in a typical Fall Term, the college reports a much smaller subset of students to IPEDS. This subset is used to calculate completion and retention.

This information is provided to allow you to make informed decisions about your educational choices, and is part of the Student Right-to-Know information provided by all colleges.

This data represents student in the sample who either completed their program, or were still enrolled at the start of the next academic year.

2016-17 represents students who were registered as full-time Degree/Certificate-Seeking students at the start of 2016-17 (Sept. 2016) and who remained registered for courses in the next academic year (Sept. 2017).

2015-16 represents students who were registered as full-time Degree/Certificate-Seeking students at the start of 2015-16 (Sept. 2015) and who remained registered for courses in the next academic year (Sept. 2016).
