The Beginning Naturalist

You don't need a biology degree to learn more about nature! In this course, you'll learn how to start identifying animals, plants and fungi, and important things about their habitats, all using easy-to-access resources. Students will learn how to identify animals, plants and fungi, become better versed in basic natural sciences, and learn about becoming a citizen scientist. This is a one-weekend, two-session class. The first day will be spent in the classroom, and the second day will be spent in the field in the great outdoors!

Yoga and Meditation

This class combines the practices of pranayama (breath practice), hatha yoga, and seated meditation. Yoga asanas and pranayama were originally developed to prepare the body for seated meditation. During this class, we will be exploring these practices to bring balance, ease, and health to the body in preparation for silent sitting meditation. This is a non-religious class lead by a certified yoga teacher/Zen priest. All levels welcome! No class 7/16. 8 sessions
