Weaving Traditional Maritime Mats

Historically, maritime chafing mats (woven from retired fishing and crabbing line) were used to protect the most trafficked areas of the deck aboard wooden ships from everyday wear and tear. In this workshop, students will learn the history and purpose of chafing mats, how to select and prepare retired commercial fishing line for weaving, how to read and follow patterns, and how to weave mats from retired commercial line thus harnessing the sea’s good karma. Location: Towler Hall, 3rd Floor Atrium. Only 8 spaces are available. 1 session

Yoga and Meditation

This class combines the practices of pranayama (breath practice), hatha yoga, and seated meditation. Yoga asanas and pranayama were originally developed to prepare the body for seated meditation. During this class, we will be exploring these practices to bring balance, ease, and health to the body in preparation for silent sitting meditation. This is a non-religious class lead by a certified yoga teacher/Zen priest. All levels welcome! No class 7/16. 8 sessions

The Beginning Naturalist

You don’t need a biology degree to learn more about nature! In this course, you’ll learn how to start identifying animals, plants and fungi, and important things about their habitats, all using easy-to-access resources. Students will learn how to identify animals, plants and fungi, become better versed in basic natural sciences, and learn about becoming a citizen scientist. This is a one-weekend, two-session class. The first day will be spent in the classroom, and the second day will be spent in the field in the great outdoors!

Septic Systems

Participants will learn everything they wanted to know (and likely did not want to know) about the septic system that is working hard every day to dispose of wastewater. Students will learn how septic systems work, where to find it on a property, and how to properly feed and maintain it to assure its longevity. This is a great class for homeowners, renters, realtors, and the curious! 1 session
