

August 1, 2025

Teena Toyas
Provost and Chief Academic Officer
Clatsop Community College
1651 Lexington Avenue
Astoria, Oregon 97103

Dear Teena:

The following proposed program that represents a significant departure (25% or more aggregate change) from programs previously approved has been reviewed as a minor change and approved effective August 1, 2025, under the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities' (NWCCU) Policy on Substantive Change:

- Associate of Arts - Transfer (AA-T) Writing and Literature (90 Quarter Credits to be delivered via face to face and distance education)

Accordingly, this program is now included under the accreditation of Clatsop Community College.

Thank you for keeping NWCCU apprised of the developments at Clatsop Community College.

Sincerely,

Gita Bangera
Senior Vice President

cc: Jarrod Hogue, President, Clatsop Community College
Ben Cannon, Executive Director, Oregon Higher Education Coordinating Commission